

Here is what I received. Good luck preparing for your exam.

***

Couldn't Open Marena's group (9/4-9/8)

Lee on Kinship and Social Organization (September 25th)

1. How do the Ju/'hoansi make their living?
2. Describe their kinship system.
3. What is the basic, traditional living set-up? Ie. Bands, camps?
4. Describe joking kin and avoidance kin.
5. Describe the naming system. What is the relationship between people with the same name?
6. How do the Ju/'hoansi keep their society egalitarian?

Lee on Subsistence (September 25th)

1. How do bands fission?
2. How is the meaning of mother and father different in the Ju/'hoansi kinship system?
3. Explain what happens to the man who brings home the meat in this society. Who does the meat belong to? What does the owner of said meat do with it? Explain the meaning of a leveling mechanism in regards to this process of bringing home meat.
4. Describe the process of the hierarchy of food and how this affects the migration of this tribe.
5. What factor decides who goes where during fission?
6. Who can be called mother and father in this society?

Reeves questions

1. Define 'nation' as discussed in class.
2. How are those nationalist principles are seen in the article.
3. Explain why reeves states "increasing globalization has fostered its own forms of closure."
4. After the fall of the Berlin wall, did the people of the Ferghana Valley consider themselves free? Why or why not?
5. How did the new borders in the Ferghana Valley change the peoples' views of each other.

9/22 group

1. Why must the kinship rules in the Yanomamo society be broken?
2. How does the Yanomamo culture fission?
3. Name and describe the three types of descent. Which does the United States use?
4. Why is Chagnon so controversial?
5. Name and define the type of Kin the Yanomamo could marry.

6. How do the Yanomamo resolve conflicts?
7. Contrast the roles of Yanomamo girls and boys in everyday life.
8. What is classified as incest in the Yanomamo society?
9. What distinctions can be made between boys and girls becoming adults in the Yanomama society?
10. What type of incest is universally opposed?
11. What is an Eskimo kinship? Give an example of a society that follows it.

Amanda Pearls Group: (10/2?)

1. When examining the Dobe Ju/hoansi culture, how does the central culture fit their economic system?
2. What are some examples of how the Dobe Ju/hoansi society keeps an egalitarian society?
3. According to Wolfe, how should culture be defined generally?
4. According to Wolfe, what faults can be found in America's attempt to spread democracy to countries lacking a democratic government?
5. In the "world system" how do the Core and the periphery relate?
6. What is Wolfe's main critique of Geertz?