

Faculty Welfare Committee/AAUP

Excellence in Education

From the FWC/AAUP President:

Dear Colleagues,

Many thanks to our FWC/AAUP Organizing Committee who are working together with other campus workers on the Forum on Campus Labor, scheduled for Thursday 4/21 from 4:15 to 5:30 in BCC lower level. This inaugural event of Fairfield University Workers United will be dedicated to the memory of Professor Gisela Gil-Egui. We in the FWC/AAUP leadership have her to thank for bringing an issue with Sodexo workers to our attention last semester, and we all have Gisela to thank for the successful resolution of that matter. The back of this newsletter is a flyer for the event. We hope you will post it to help advertise what we think will be a terrific forum for our campus community.

- National AAUP released a draft report, The History, Uses and Abuses of Title IX. Comments are welcome during the comment period. Find it at aaup.org.
- AAUP Annual Compensation Survey is scheduled to be released on Monday, April 11.

Thanks to all of our FWC members for all you do for Fairfield.

Rona Preli, FWC/AAUP President

Forum on Campus Labor

Fairfield University Workers United

Come and hear the voices of workers — including students — who serve meals, who keep everything working and fix the things that break, who keep our buildings and our campus looking great, who teach our classes.

BCC LOWER LEVEL
THURSDAY, APRIL 21
4:15 TO 5:30 PM

Learn how you can support the ongoing labor struggles on campus and how our solidarity connects us to make a better and more just campus.

Hear from representatives of:

- Faculty Welfare Committee/AAUP
- UNITE HERE Local 217
- SEIU Local 32BJ
- International Union of Operating Engineers Local 30
- Student groups
- And more!

Celebrate the launch of FUWU with us:

Fairfield University Workers United

This inaugural event will be dedicated to the memory of our beloved colleague, Professor Gisela Gil-Egui, a friend to all workers. Just last Fall, Gisela was instrumental in helping to bring a labor issue concerning our Sodexo workers to a successful resolution.
