

Application for Magis Core Interdisciplinary Course Enhancement Funds

Please use this brief form to access course enhancement funds for your 'Interdisciplinary' Magis Core Course. $50 is available to compensate a speaker from a discipline distinct from that of the main instructor. The speaker can be a Fairfield faculty member or an expert from outside the University. Up to $250 is available to support an outside of the classroom activity that supports the ID nature of the course. There is no guarantee of funds without prior approval. Please submit completed applications to Jennifer Costantini: jcostantini@fairfield.edu.

For information on the Magis Core, including the Interdisciplinary, Social Justice, and Writing (WAC/WID) signature elements, please see: <http://faculty.fairfield.edu/magiscore/#>. For questions regarding this application, please contact Jennifer Costantini <jcostantini@fairfield.edu> or David Downie, Coordinator of the Interdisciplinary Element of the Magis Core <ddownie@farifield.edu>.

Date of submission:

Instructor Name:

Instructor Email:

Instructor Title & Department/Program:

Course Number and Title:

Course Term, Year and Approximate Enrollment:

Course Location/Room:

If seeking compensation for a speaker:

- Name of speaker:
- Title:
- Discipline or Expertise:
- Topic of Talk:

If seeking support for an outside of class activity:

- In 100 words or less, describe the activity, its contribution to the interdisciplinary Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) associated with the course, and how these contributions will be evaluated.
- Outline the budget for the activity.